

Experience Mali

7-day hike Dogon Country

Off the beaten tracks

Experience Dogon Country by taking the road less travelled. This trip combines some of the well-known highlights with non-touristic villages.

Day 1: Sévaré - Songo - Bandiagara - Begnimatu - Aindelou

Meet your guide in Sévaré. Travel by private transport to Songo to see its rock wall paintings. Continue - via Bandiagara - to Begnimatu. Hike through the rocky landscape to Aindelou and enjoy the sunset & views.

Day 2: Aindelou - Soninghe

Today's hike takes you to Soninghe, a non-touristic Dogon village. Camp on a family's courtyard and enjoy the afternoon observing daily life in the village.

Day 3: Soninghe - Endé - Oualia

Stroll over the plateau and descend the cliff to Endé. Visit the cliff houses of Endé, its mosque and the women who dye with indigo. Spend the night in Oualia with views on the cliff.

Day 4: Oualia - Téli - Kani Kombolé - Kani Bonzo

Continue to Téli, visit cliff houses and hike on to Kani Kombolé. Enjoy the market if you happen to arrive on market day and of course its mosque. End the day camping in Kani Bonzo, the first Dogon village.

Day 5: Kani Bonzo - Komo - Anakanda

Get ready for a beautiful hike through non-touristic Dogon Country, taking you to the villages of Komo and Anakanda. Camp on the side of the village.

Day 6: Anakanda - Daga - Djiguibombo

Another off the beaten tracks day takes you from Anakanda to Daga and through the fields on to Djiguibombo. Enjoy the sceneries and the welcoming people.

Day 7: Djiguibombo - Ogosogu - Djiguibombo - Bandiagara - Sévaré

Optional: early morning mask dances in Djiguibombo. Make a side trip to Ogosogu before the car comes to pick you up. Travel via Bandiagara back to Sévaré.
