River Niger camping trip with visit to Bozo village

Take a break from city life by setting out on an overnight boat trip. Visit the fishermen in their village and camp on an isle.

The river banks and isles near Ségou are home to the Bozo people. The fishermen live in villages and nomadic settlements.

Set out on a late afternoon boat trip to visit one of the fishing villages and get an impression of their daily life. Make camp on an isle and enjoy the evening around the camp fire underneath the star-spangled sky.

Return to Ségou in the morning of the next day.

The boat crew prepares the meals.

Enjoy a relaxing trip and experience Mali from a different angle.

Bird lovers have the chance to spot some of Mali's beautiful feathered inhabitants living in the vegetation on the river shores and isles.
