2-day hike Dogon Country

Southern circuit

This hike takes you along the Cliff of Bandiagara, visiting villages on the plain as well as on the plateau. Enjoy the mud-built villages, ancient cliff houses, impressive rock formations, stunning views and insights on daily life in Dogon Country.

Day 1: Sévaré - Songo - Aindelou - Yabatalou - Endé

Meet your guide in Sévaré in the morning. By private transport you travel to Songo, the first Dogon village to visit on this trip. Songo is well-known for its rock wall paintings, which are made by the village elders to teach the young boys in the preparations for manhood and circumcision.

Continue - via Bandiagara - to Aindelou, from where your trekking starts after lunch. Visit the village. A beautiful - and at certain points somewhat challenging - descent takes you from Aindelou to Yabatalou. Continue from Yabatalou to Endé.

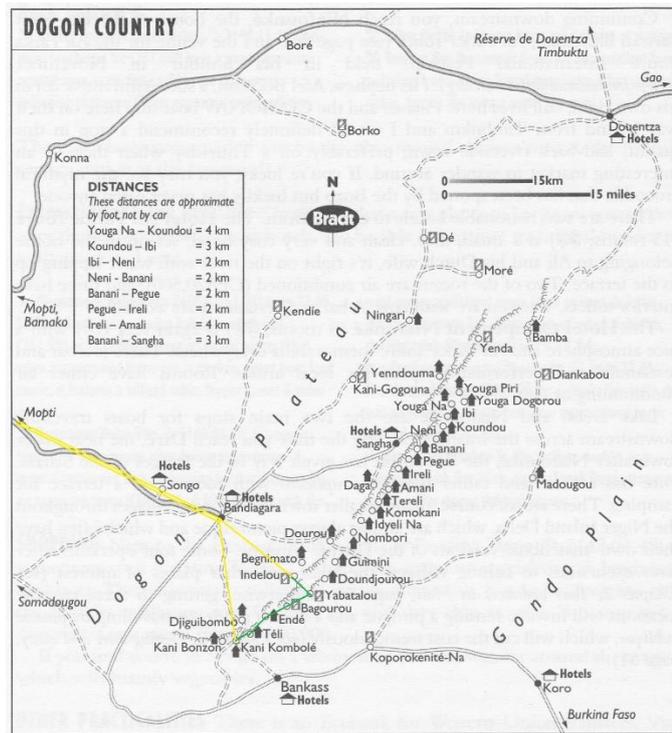

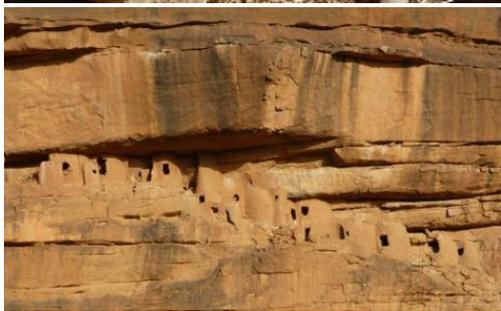

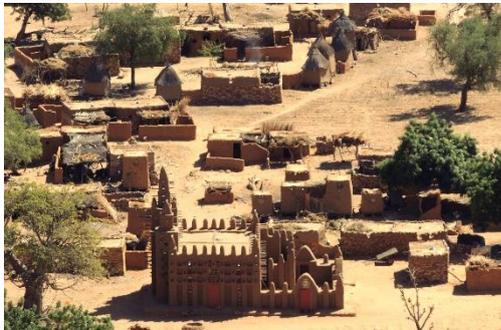

Day 2: Endé - Téli - Kani Kombolé - Sévaré

Take advantage of the early morning hours to visit the cliff houses and granaries of Endé. Visit equally the mud-built mosque and the women who dye fabrics with indigo.

Continue to Téli for lunch and a village visit. After lunch the hike continues to Kani Kombolé, well-known for its adobe mosque and the 'baobab alley'. The car meets you and your guide in Kani Kombolé in the afternoon for the trip via Bandiagara back to Sévaré (or Bankass at additional charge).

Enjoy Dogon Country!
