

Discover Mali

Hiking in Manding country

Welcome to Manding country, a place of history and a warm welcome in the Southwest of Mali. Explore picturesque traditional villages and impressive nature, which looks like Dogon country.

Siby - Kamadjan Arc - Tabou

One day long we take you hiking to discover the beauty and mysteries of Manding country.

Departure from Siby at 08:30am.

Visit to the cave, where water leaks from the rocks. A source of pure water, where villagers and youngsters come to fill up their water bottles and to relax.

A stretch of 7k takes you along old ovens and nature to the Kamadjan Arc.

Lunch is eaten under the arc with a magnificent view.

After lunch the consultation cave is visited, followed by the hike downhill towards Tabou; a distance of approximately 5k.

The hike ends at the sacred well of Tabou. On public transport the trip goes back to Siby.

Be welcome and experience Manding country hospitality!

Length of the trip

01 day

Included

Guide, tourist taxes and tokens of respect, sandwich (lunch), fair payment to our employees and suppliers. All our activities contribute to the Papillon funds.

Exclusive

Transport to and from Siby, personal insurances (such as travel, cancellation and health insurance), drinks, tips, souvenirs and personal expenses.

Best time

October till March - seasonal variations apply.

Dates & price

Dates adapted to your itinerary. Prices upon request.

