Itinerary

day 1: arrival - Lomé (20k)

The day is dedicated to the journey to Togo. Arrival at Lomé international airport. Transfer to your accommodation.

night in: Lomé

day 2: Lomé - Kouma Kunda (145k)

The morning is used to take care of practical issues such as money exchange and arranging a local sim card and / or an introduction to Lomé.

Early afternoon departure for Kouma Kunda, a village in the vicinity of Kpalimé in the Southwest of the country.

night in: Kouma Kunda

day 3: Kouma Kunda - Kpalimé (20k)

Set out on a hike on Mount Kloto to enjoy nature and villages.
A picnic lunch is eaten at the Kloto Falls.
Continue to Kpalimé in the (late) afternoon.
night in: Kpalimé

day 4: Kpalimé - Kara (415k)

A long day traveling from the Southwest to the Northeast. Today's destination is Kara, the second capital of the country.
Along the way a stop is made for lunch, for a visit to the Bafilo weavers and to visit the Aledjo rock.
night in: Kara

day 5: Kara - Tamberma country (105k)

Set out on a morning hike on Mount Kabyé. During the hike visits are made to a blacksmith, who works the hot iron with heavy stones and to a potter.
Continue to Tamberma country in the afternoon. The land of the Batammariba is known for the two-story adobe houses. In times past the tatas - as the castle like houses are called locally - were designed to provide maximum protection against hostile tribes. Even though that kind of protection is no more needed nowadays, the Tamberma are loyal to their traditions, to their architecture and way of building. A visit is made to a tata and tonight you are the guest of a local family. The night is spend under the star-spangled sky on the terrace of a tata.
night in: Tamberma country

day 6: Tamberma country - Agbodrafo (530k)

Early morning departure for the road trip to the South of the country. A total distance of about 530k is covered today, taking you through different zones of the country from the dry savannah in the North to the lush coastal area in the South. A late afternoon arrival is expected in Agbodrafo, where the night is spent.
night in: Agbodrafo

day 7: Agbodrafo - Avévé (30k)

The day is dedicated to exploring the villages along the Mono river. In this part of the country the Mono river serves as the border between Togo and Benin.
You are introduced to the people, to everyday life and to traditions in the riverside villages. During the day you visit a basket maker and a potter. You're introduced to the production of palm oil and a visit is made to a sodabi brewery, where you are more than welcome to taste the local spirits. Enjoy a homestay in a riverside village.
night in: Avévé

day 8: Avévé - Lomé - departure (85k)

The last day of your trip through Togo has arrived.
Morning road trip to Aného, followed by a river trip to Lomé, where a visit is made to the largest fetish market of West Africa.
Enjoy lunch and a relaxing afternoon at the oceanfront.

Transfer to the airport for your outbound flight.
