Itinerary

day 1: arrival - Lomé (20k)

The day is dedicated for the journey to Togo. Arrival at Lomé international airport. Transfer to your accommodation.

night in: Lomé

day 2: Lomé - Kpalimé (125k)

In the morning practical issues, such as money exchange and arranging a local sim card, are taken care of and / or an introduction to Lomé.

Early afternoon departure for Kpalimé in the Southwest of the country.

night in: Kpalimé

day 3: Kpalimé surroundings (40k)

Set out on a hike on Mount Kloto to enjoy nature and villages. A picnic lunch is eaten at the Kloto Falls.
Return to Kpalimé in the (late) afternoon.
night in: Kpalimé

day 4: Kpalimé - Kara (415k)

A long day traveling from the Southwest to the Northeast. Today's destination is Kara, the second largest city in the country.
Along the way a stops are made for lunch, for a visit to the Bafilo weavers and to visit the Aledjo rock.
night in: Kara

day 5: Kara - Tamberma country (105k)

Set out on a morning hike on Mount Kabyé. During the hike visits are made to a blacksmith, who works the hot iron with heavy stones and to a potter.
Continue to Tamberma country in the afternoon. The land of the Batammariba is known for the two-story adobe houses. In times past the tatas - as the castle like houses are called locally - were designed to provide maximum protection against hostile tribes. Even though that kind of protection is no more needed, the Tamberma are loyal to their traditions, to their architecture and way of building. A visit is made to a tata and tonight you are the guest of a local family. The night is spend under the star-spangled sky on the terrace of a tata.
night in: Tamberma country

day 6: Tamberma country - Agbodrafo (530k)

Early morning departure for the road trip to the South of the country. A total distance of about 530k is covered today, taking you through different zones of the country from the dry savannah in the North to the lush coastal area in the South. A late afternoon arrival is expected in Agbodrafo.
night in: Agbodrafo

day 7: Mono River - Agbodrafo (60k)

The day is dedicated to exploring the villages along the Mono river. In this part of the country the Mono river serves as the border between Togo and Benin.
You are introduced to the people, to everyday life and to traditions in the riverside villages. During the day you visit a basket maker and a potter. You're introduced to the production of palm oil and a visit is made to a sodabi brewery, where you are more than welcome to taste the local spirits.
Return to Agbodrafo for the night.
night in: Agbodrafo

day 8: Agbodrafo - Lomé - departure (85k)

The last day of your trip through Togo has arrived.
Morning visit to Agbodrafo and Togoville. Agbodrafo, in colonial times known as Porte Seguro, once was the place where people boarded boats to faraway destinations, where they were sold as slaves. The house of Woold served as the hiding place for the people till the boats arrived. Visit the house, which is nowadays a museum dedicated for the memory of the slave history.

Cross Lake Togo by wooden pirogue for a visit to Togoville. It is here that then Togoland and Germany signed a treaty. Visit to the town and to the cathedral. Cross the lake back to Agbodrafo for the road-trip to Lomé, where a visit is made to the largest fetish market of West Africa.

Enjoy lunch and a relaxing afternoon at the oceanfront.

Transfer to the airport for your outbound flight.
