

Experience Benin The Kouandé Kingdom

Have you heard of Kouandé? This the off-the-beaten-track destination in the North of Benin is often overlooked by travellers. A good reason for us to take you there! Kouandé is the capital of the Kingdom with the same name and home to its King.

On this trip we take you exploring several aspects of everyday life in the village and the King is asked to grant an audience.

08:30am meet-up with your guide at Le Béliér or your hotel in Natitingou for the road-trip to Kouandé.

The trip of about 50 ks offers the chance to see the women at work along the road. Your guide explains about their work.

The remaining morning hours are dedicated to a courtesy visit to the King and the chief of the land. Questions are welcomed and will gladly be answered by Your Highness.

Lunch is eaten in the village.

An afternoon visit is made to the village for an impression of everyday life in the ancient Kingdom, including a visit to a family specialized in the production of shea butter. This local product is used for cooking and beauty products.

Around 6pm drop-off at your hotel in Natitingou.

The King of Kouandé looks forward to your visit!
