

Explore Burkina Faso A day in Senoufo country

The Southwest of the country of the sincere people is well-known for its natural beauty. Rock formations, waterfalls and traditional villages are amongst the treasures to visit. This day-trip offers an in-depth exploration of the Sindou Peaks and Sindou village. Enjoy nature and be introduced to the past and present of Sindou.

07:45am: meet your guide at Campement Soutrala and set out to explore the famous Sindou Peaks. Your local guide shares his knowledge and stories about the peaks, which were in the past inhabited.

Enjoy lunch in the Royal Cave overlooking a part of the rock formation where few visitors set foot.

After a relaxing lunch break a short hike leads to the village of Sindou for an introduction to everyday life in the village and on family compounds. Learn about the role of the vestibule and about the granaries. Most certainly you notice teasing and laughter going on between your guide and others; based on historical events between families and population groups it creates a good atmosphere and prevents conflicts.

Senoufo country awaits you!
