

Experience Mali

1-day hike Dogon Country Southern circuit

This day-hike takes you to the Cliff of Bandiagara, a UNESCO world heritage site. Villages on the plateau are visited. Be introduced to the mud-built villages with traditional granaries, ginnas and togunas. Enjoy the impressive rock formations, the stunning and vast views over the valley and insights in daily life in Dogon Country. Along the way the guide explains about the fascinating culture of the Dogon people.

Itinerary

Sévaré - Dourou - Begnimatu - Aindelou - Bandiagara - Songo - Sévaré

Early morning pick-up from your accommodation in Sévaré by your guide and driver. Travel by private transport via Bandiagara deeper into Dogon country, destination Dourou, where your day-hike starts.

Visit to the village of Dourou followed by the hike to Begnimatu, village set in a stunning rock scenery. The village - like many Dogon villages - is home to Muslims, Christians and animists.

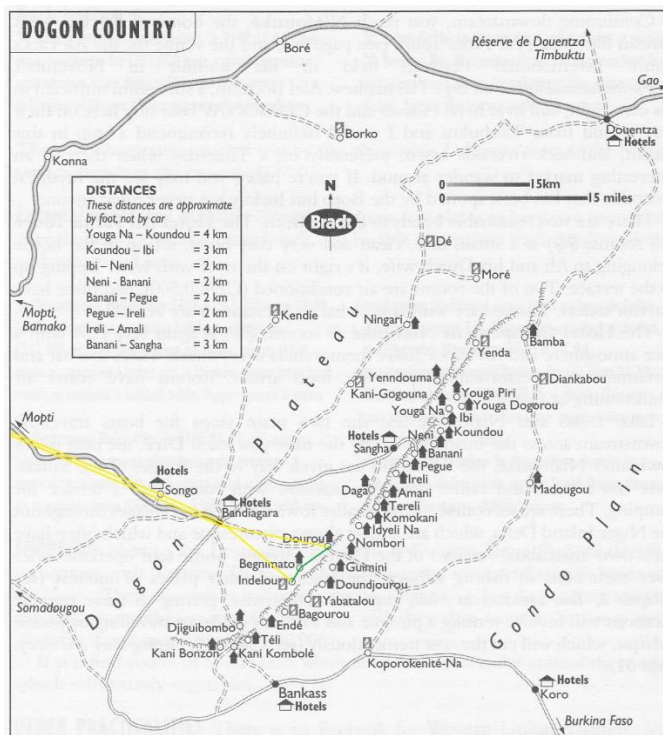

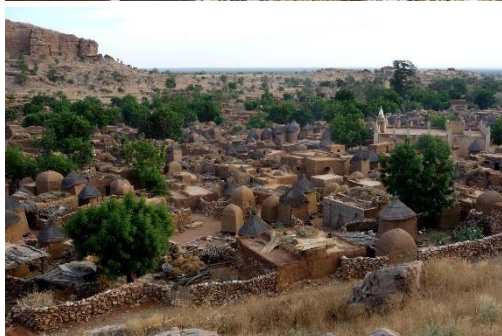

After lunch a hike through the rocky scenery leads to Aindelou. Visit the village and enjoy the vast views over the valley.

The car is waiting for you and your guide for the journey back to Sévaré. Depending on the time available a short stop is made in Bandiagara on the way to Songo. The village is known for its rock wall paintings, made by the village elders to teach the village boys in the preparations for manhood and circumcision.

Late afternoon drop-off at your accommodation in Sévaré.

Enjoy Dogon Country!
