

Experience Mali

Half day-trip Mopti

Welcome to the Venice of Mali. The town of Mopti is situated on the junction of the Bani and Niger rivers. Its harbour serves as the hub to the North. Fully loaded boats arrive from and depart to the fabled city of Timbuktu.

8am (or 2pm in case of an afternoon visit) meet-up with your guide at your hotel.

A walk is made through the town, along the adobe mosque, for an impression of everyday life in town and for a visit the women's market.

Visit the museum for adobe architecture.

Walk along the vibrant harbour area, visit a traditional ship wharf, and set out on a 1-hour river trip to the junction of the Bani and Niger rivers. On the river shores the Bozo fishermen and their families have created nomadic settlements. When opting for an afternoon trip, we suggest a sunset river trip.

 When visiting on a Monday or a Thursday a visit to the week market can be included.*
